Powerful video conference safeguard
Reliable data and privacy protection

From the architecture to the data protection, Yealink Meeting puts a lot of importance on building reliable solution to offer a stronger security protection, which includes data isolation, disaster recovery etc.

With highly secured audio-video conferencing services, you're going to enjoy every meeting fluently and safely!

01

Industry-leading secure foundation

All cloud-based services of Yealink Meeting are hosted within highly secured Amazon Web Services (AWS), which provides safe and reliable conference services.

02

Highly secured data protection

All communication data is encrypted in transit, including user information, meeting recording and other application data, providing robust protection to inside classify information or meeting content.

03

International official privacy compliance

With compliance of GDPR and CCPA, Yealink Meeting guarantees the privacy security of individuals and organizations.

04

Multiple security settings for admins

Customizing management of the admins, including identify authentication, role assignment and access control etc. ensure secured meetings.

To learn more about Yealink Meeting, please visit www.yealinkmeeting.com